

THE ELEMENTS WORLD THEATRE presents

REFLECTIONS OF A CONSTANT MONK

With Storytelling, Poetry and Original Music

Written by Lee Gershuny Music Composed and Directed by Robin Mason
With James Bryce and Peter Galinsky

NOVEMBER TOUR

Sat., 11 November, 7:30 pm
Pathhead Town Hall, Pathhead

Wed., 15 November, 8:00 pm
The Poetry Club, Glasgow

Thurs., 16 November, 7:30 pm
Scottish Storytelling Centre, Edinburgh

REFLECTIONS OF A CONSTANT MONK

With Storytelling, Poetry and Original Music

Music composed and directed by Robin Mason on cello; Peter Galinsky on Clarinet and James Bryce on keyboard, weave in and around the poetry written and presented by Lee Gershuny.

With music and poetry from the heart, the performance brings to life thought-provoking adventures of a modern day Monk facing life's challenges -- being overweight, meeting a bully, falling in love, etc. With a playful innocence and endless curiosity, the Monk manages to find beauty in the darkest moments and questions the purpose of life itself. Insightful and sometimes laughable, the Monk expresses a wit and wisdom to amuse, surprise and move us.

Sat., 11 November, 7:30 pm

Pathhead Town Hall, 11 Main Street, Pathhead EH37 5PZ

Ticket Prices: £6 In Advance / £10 At the Door

Post Performance Discussion and Coffee

Advanced Ticket Sales @ Wahlberg's in Pathhead

Wed., 15 November, 8:00 pm

The Poetry Club, 100 Eastvale Place, Glasgow G3 8QG

Ticket Prices: £8 In Advance / £10 At the Door

Tickets Scotland 0141 204-5151 or 0131 220-3234

On-Line: www.tickets-scotland.com

Thursday, 16 November, 7:30 pm

Scottish Storytelling Centre, 43-45 High Street, Edinburgh EH1 1SR

Post Performance Q & A

Ticket Prices: £8 / £6 concession / £5.50 (SCS)

Box Office: 0131 556 9579 or www.scottishstorytellingcentre.co.uk

 @TheElementsWT

www.the-elements.org.uk

 TheElementsWorldTheatre